TITLE: I Have A Body, Too

TOPIC: Interdependence (Preamble Paragraph 4; Principle 3; The Way Forward Paragraphs 2 and 3)

Letra en Español

Tienes ojos en tu cara
Un par de pies, y dedos dies
Partes diferentes
Que te forman a ti

Tu cuerpo tiene muchas partes
Y son interdependientes, amigo
Pues, de ellas tu dependes
Para vivir

Tienes orejas, una boca
Y también tienes dientes, muchos dientes
Piernas para andar
Pulmones para respirar

Pero la parte más especial
Es tu corazón, tu gran corazón
Que me puede cuidar a mi

Es que yo los necesito
Toda gente de este mundo, por favor
¿A caso no se dan cuenta quién soy?
Cada día como hoy yo les doy vida
Porque soy la Madre Tierra

Lyrics in English

You've got eyes on your face
A couple of feet, hands to greet
Different parts
For the one and only you

Body parts are so different
And they're interdependent
Because you depend on them
Just so that you can live

Ears to hear, a mouth to speak
And underneath you've got teeth
Legs for you to run
And lungs so you can breath

But the most special part
Is your heart, your big heart
Capable of caring for me

Cause I need all of you
All the people of the world, please
Don't you see? It's me
I'm the one who every day gives you birth
It's me, Mother Earth

I am just like you
I have a body, too
And we both need to breath
You've got lungs, I've got the trees
You have eyes, I've got the sky
Your special body part is your heart
I'm the Earth, my heart is you

All my body parts must be friends
That know how to get along
Despite their differences
Because that's the only way
For my whole body to stay
Alive for all the days

Because I just want to belong
You to me and me to you
You're alive because of me
Now, I want to stay alive because of you
