

City of Urbino, Italy

City of Urbino, whose historic centre was declared by UNESCO "World Heritage", has just agreed to Project Agenda 21 and to "Charter of European Cities for a long and sustainable development" elaborated in Aalborg in Denmark.

Town Council of City of Urbino feels itself very involved on themes regarding defence of civil rights, of environment and of historic and architectonic heritage and so

DECIDES

To sustain Earth Charter officially, to agree to its principles and to support future actions that could help in spreading these principles among different politic, economic and religious realities in Europe and in the world.

Friday, May 25th 2001