

Earth Charter Youth Toolkit

About

This toolkit, while not exhaustive, explains many of the most useful tools, resources and activities that have inspired and motivated members of the Earth Charter youth network.

The Earth Charter Youth Network is a bold and dynamic action-oriented movement convinced that urgent action is required to bring about a just, sustainable, and peaceful world. The Earth Charter youth network is active in over 198 countries and at the global level, with youth groups, partners and a large number of internationally diverse individual activists.

You and the Earth Charter

Earth Charter International (ECI) encourages everyone to contribute to the goals of the Earth Charter Movement. You can do this on an individual level, in a project or organization.

Individual

As an individual, you can take the following actions to support and participate:

- Use the Earth Charter as a call to action and an ethical guide to a sustainable way of life that inspires commitment, cooperation and change
- Endorse the Earth Charter and encourage others to do as well
- Promote the Earth Charter amongst your peers offline and online
- Take part in the online Leadership, Sustainability, and Ethics Training and become an Earth Charter Young Leader
- Do a project or become active in an organization linked to the Earth Charter
- Write blogposts on the Earth Charter Initiative send to youthcoordinator@earthcharter.org

Organizations

As an existing organization, you can take the following 10 actions to embrace the Earth Charter:

1. Disseminate and promote the declaration among your members and raise awareness about values and principles for a sustainable future
2. Endorse the Charter and encourage your members to do as well
3. integrate the Earth Charter, Earth Charter educational materials, and programs of EC into your activities and materials,
4. Translate the Earth charter and Earth Charter-related materials in your local language
5. Collaborate with Earth Charter Partners and Affiliates and with other organizations that have endorsed the Earth Charter in your region
6. Share the Earth Charter Initiative stories on your website, newsletter or social media
7. Assess your organization's progress toward the goal of sustainability with the Earth Charter Assess Tool
8. Identify additional, potential partners for the Earth Charter youth network
9. Make financial contributions or provide other resources
10. Consult and follow the Action Guidelines for Decentralized Expansion of the Earth Charter Movement.

Partners

Youth Partners Organizations collaborate in the promotion of the Earth Charter as a sound ethical foundation for a sustainable global society, based on the principles of respect and care for the community of life in all its diversity; ecological integrity; social and economic justice; and democracy, non-violence and peace. They fully embrace the Earth Charter and integrate it into their actions.

Partner Organizations enter into a formal agreement with Earth Charter International on specific projects that describe how the Partner will work to support and promote the Earth Charter and how Earth Charter International will support them.

Earth Charter Young Leaders

The ECYL programme is a one-year voluntary commitment to serve as an active focal point in the Earth Charter Youth Network. All ECYL must first complete the Earth Charter International online training in Leadership, Sustainability and Ethics offered annually in English and Spanish. Examples are the ECYL of Costa Rica and Melchor from Mexico.

Project

You can use the Earth Charter as your tool to strengthen your current work OR as a framework for a new project to make a positive change in your community. You can find more info on how to implement a youth project here. An inspiring example of a youth starting a project is Esther Abgarakwe.

Earth Charter Youth Stories

ECI looks for youth stories in the form of an essay, video, performance, artwork, podcast etc. These stories may be published on the ECI website, social media, or even in future print publications. Check out these youth stories in the ECI Youth Network to see some examples.
